

Overview James is a talented designer who graduated from Philadelphia University in May of 2003. Upon graduating he joined Richard Brown Associates and gained experience working with both residential and commercial projects. Since joining Converse Winkler Architecture in early 2008, he has played a major role in the Pennsylvania Farm Show renovation project in Harrisburg, PA. He brings to Converse Winkler excellent skills in CAD Drafting, Architectural Design, Interior Design, and creating quality Presentation material.

Education Philadelphia University
Bachelor of Architecture, May 2003

Selected Projects Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex, Harrisburg,
Renovations to the Original Complex
Harrisburg, PA

Paul Mitchell School
Renovations of Existing Building and School.
Ambler, PA

78 South Main Street,
New Mixed Use Construction in Doylestown Historic District
Doylestown, PA

83 South Hamilton Street,
New Mixed Use Construction in Doylestown Historic District
Doylestown, PA

Maxwells Resteraunt,
Renovations to Existing Restaurant in Doylestown Historic District
Doylestown, PA

Bucks County Courthouse, Feasability Study
Doylestown, PA

Verrichia Residence, New Construction
Buckingham, PA

Kimberly Residence,
Renovation and Additions in Historical District
Doylestown, PA

Work History 2007-Present Converse Winkler Architecture, LLC, Bala Cynwyd, PA
2003-2007 - Richard Brown Associates, Architects, Doylestown, PA
2002 - Gibson Associates, Jenkintown, PA
2001 - Peter Zimmerman Architects, Berwyn PA